

ABSTRACT

The present invention concerns a new general process for asymmetric hemisynthesis of harringtonines and their analogs, that are alkaloids used in chemotherapy. This process comprises direct esterification of a natural 5 cephalotaxine with an acylating compound constituted of a side chain precursor which backbone and functionalization are entirely preformed.

09270006-031699